IS A SACRED WEEK

HOLY WEEK HELD SACRED BY ALL CHRISTIANS.

A SYNOPSIS OF EVENTS

Beginning With Palm Sunday a Brief Outline of the Happenings of That Week of Centuries Ago.

Holy Week began with Palm Sunday, commemorating the triumphal entry of Jesus into Jerusalem, when His disciples, the country people, followed Him, carpeting His way with palm branches and their own sacrificial robes, cast before His feet in the enthusiasm of religious hopes and Messianic affection. That scene, enacted in the land of the rising sun 2,000 years ago, is engraven on the faithful hearts of millions of Christ's followers today. This is the week in which the men and women of Christendom will walk with Christ, the Savior, to Jerusalem, be with Him in dark Gethsemane, see Him betrayed by Judas, be present at the session of the Sanhedrin, pity Pilate and follow the world's redeemer to Calvary. There the Christian world of the nineteenth century will see the cross, emblematic of all the progress which has attended the development of the ages.

The entrance of Jesus into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday is followed by the cleansing of the temple on Monday, when he utters the memorable words, with a meaning for all time. "Make not my father's house a house of merchandise." Tuesday commemorates His great controversy with the Herodians, Pharisees and Sadducees who sought not only to refute but to entangle Him; that they might have grounds whereby to accuse Him and bring Him to His death.

Wednesday commemorates His prophecy, on the Mount of Olives, of the destruction of Jerusalem, and the bargain Judas made with the high priests and elders to betray Jesus into their hands for thirty pieces of silver, the day closing with His evening visit to the home of Mary and Martha at Bethany, where the alabaster box of precious ointment was broken, whose fragrance has gone round the world, where love uttered itself in a language which only love can interpret, bringing from the Master's lips those comforting words: "She hath done what she could."

Thursday is the occasion of the meeting in the upper chamber, the eating of the Passover, the Last Supper, the feast of love, the memorable washing of the feet, followed by those wonderful discourses in the heart of John's Gospel which have comforted countless sorrowing hearts for nearly two thousand years.

Friday is the day of the great tragedy, the day of days in the Christian history of the world, for on that day the cruel nails were driven into sacrificial flesh—who does not know the story of these hours.

Saturday, full of exultation for the Pharisees, full of desolation for disciples scattered as sheep without a shepherd, was a day on which all the material world seemed to have been made dark. On the first day following that dark and desecrated Jewish Sabbath very early in the morning, while it was yet dark, two lone women went toward the tomb to anoint the body with spices, wondering as they went who should roll away for them the stone from the door. But, behold, it was rolled away already! An angel sat upon it, saying, "He is not here. He is risen."

This is a brief synopsis of the events that were crowded into that memorable week 2,000 years ago, a week which all Christians hold sacred.

LOUISVILLE PAPER PUBLISHED ONE BY REV. J. D. RANDOLPH.

ASSISTS IN A REVIVAL

At Louisville, Ky., Methodist Temple For Past Ten Days—Forty Conversions the First Week.

Rev. J. D. Randolph of the Buchanan Street Methodist church, who has been in Louisville, Ky., the past ten days assisting Dr. U. G. Foote in a special meeting at the Methodist temple, will arrive in Maryville in time to take charge of the Sunday services at his church here.

From the Louisville Courier-Journal of last Monday, we see that there were forty conversions the first week of the meetings, which were commenced a week ago last Sunday. Afternoon meetings are also held.

The Courier-Journal gave account of Rev. Randolph's sermon of last Sunday night on the subject, "Why I Am a Christian," which is given below:

His text for Sunday night's sermon was I. Peter, 3:15: "Be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you."

He said in part:

"The subject has been stated in a most personal and intimate form. It is natural that one should shrink from intimate disclosures. There are moods of the soul too sacred to be exposed to the gaze of the curious. In preaching on this theme I must bare my heart to you. When I attempt to give the reasons why I am a Christian a plummet line must be sent down into the farthest depth of my being. The attempt is made in the hope that it may persuade others to become what I am, a follower of the Lord Jesus Christ.

"One of the chief reasons why I am a Christian is the contribution of Christianity to the advancement of the world. It is difficult for those living today to get anything like an adequate conception of the degradation and cruelty of the world at the time Christ was born. It is a sickening task to uncover the moral degeneracy of the heathen world. Two-thirds of the population of the Roman empire were slaves. The others, while free, were mostly property of any kind and hard pressed to obtain sufficient food and clothing. A small minority of the citizens of the empire owned all the land and slaves. The physical and moral degradation of the slaves was indescribable. For the slave there was no protection in law and little in the pity of his master.

"Less than 2,000 years have passed since Christ came into the world. Today, not even in the heart of an African jungle, can human flesh be legally bought and sold. This has come to pass as a result of the presence of Christianity in the world. I am a Christian therefore because I must either identify myself with the movement which has driven out oppression or else admit that I do not care enough about others to give my personal support to that which has been the greatest force for righteousness the world has ever known.

HAVE PRETTY HAIR

Thick, Soft, Fluffy, and No Dandruff—
Use Parisian Sage.

If your hair is losing its natural color, coming out and splitting, or lacks that enviable softness, gloss and beauty, do not despair—pretty hair is largely a matter of care. If it is too thin to make it grow. If it is harsh and brittle soften it up—lubricate it. If you have dandruff it is because the scalp is too dry and flakes off. Freshen up the scalp with Parisian Sage—all dandruff disappears, falling hair and itching head cease, your hair is doubly beautiful.

Parisian Sage, sold by T. J. Parle and at all drug counters, is just what you need—a large bottle costs but 50 cents. It surely makes the hair lustrous and seem twice as abundant. You cannot be disappointed in Parisian Sage.

FEEBLE OLD PEOPLE

Are Told How to Regain Strength and Vigor.

As one grows old the waste of the system becomes more rapid than repair, the organs act more slowly and less effectively than in youth, the circulation is poor, the blood thin and digestion weak.

Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic without oil is the ideal strengthener and body builder for old folks, for it contains the very elements needed to rebuild wasting tissues and replace weakness with strength. Vinol also fortifies the system against colds and thus prevents pneumonia.

Mrs. Mary Ivey of Columbus, Ga., says: "If people only knew the good Vinol does old people, I am sure you would be unable to supply the demand. I never took anything before that did me so much good as Vinol. It is the finest tonic and strength creator I ever used in my life."

If Vinol fails to build up the feeble, old people, and create strength we will return your money. Orear-Henry Drug Co., Maryville, Mo.—Advertisement.

Was a Great Success.

The evening social entertainment given in the First Baptist church parlors Thursday evening by the white division of the Amoma class to the blue division, in keeping with the agreement that the losing side should feast the winning side in the membership contest that closed Sunday, was one of the most enjoyable affairs that has been given at this church for some time. Some two hundred and fifty were present, and the excellent two-course supper served was indeed a credit to the white division, captained by Mrs. May Denny. The blues had Miss Ina Campbell for their captain. The program committee composed of J. A. Middleton, Frank Reynolds, B. W. Lemon, Charles Andrews, Miss Frances Miller and Mrs. A. J. Luppold had done their part perfectly and there was music, charades and contests all through the evening.

An All-Day Meeting.

The C. W. B. M. and Young Ladies' Mission Circle of the First Christian church held their Easter devotional service Thursday from 10 to 12 in the forenoon and from 1:30 to 2:30 in the afternoon. A noon luncheon was partaken of and enjoyed by all. The morning service was presided over by Mrs. Robert Lyle, and some good talks were given by several of the members, also in the afternoon. These two societies have a place on the double honor roll in the state. At the close of the afternoon session, the Ladies' Aid society, including all divisions, met in the church and spent the afternoon in sewing for Dr. Drummond's children. At 4:30 the third ward division, as hostess, served the more than one hundred ladies present with refreshments. Altogether it was a delightful day. The society very much appreciated the beautiful bouquet of daffodils sent by Mrs. R. P. Hosmer, who could not be present.

YOUR CHILD'S SIGHT

Should be a most important consideration. Many children are handicapped in school or subjected to petty nervous or physical ills by the effects of imperfect vision.

An examination of the eyes of 100,000 school children in New York City showed that nearly 30 per cent needed glasses. In Boston it was more than 20 per cent, and most of them were down on the books as "stupid," "stubborn" or "unruly."

Wearing glasses in childhood often averts serious trouble later on. Have our optician examine your child's eyes. If glasses are not needed you may be sure we will tell you so frankly.

JIM ANDY FORD

GAVE HIS SERMON

It would be impossible for me to be a Christian did I not believe that God is the kind, loving father that Jesus taught Him to be and that Jesus Christ is His divine Son and that all men of every race and nation are brothers. There are a great many mysteries about Christian doctrine and many passages in the Bible are hard to understand, but the Fatherhood of God, the Sonship of Jesus and the brotherhood of man need not cause anyone to stumble. These great truths are written into the very nature of things. They are verifiable in experience and form the basis of the great body of Christian doctrine. Without faith in these things death would be a leap into fearful darkness and despair and life a meaningless mass of contradictions and the universe an expression of blind force which knows neither pity nor remorse.

"Another reason why I am a Christian is that I have found in it a power which encourages and sustains me in the struggle of life. Christianity sets forth the philosophy of hope. It holds out a promise of happy endings. It touches the dark clouds of sorrow with silver and sends the searchlight of its truth into the valley of the shadow of death.

"Following the precepts set forth in the Christian faith has never brought sorrow and shame to the life of anyone. It is only when one violates the principles of Christian ethics that shame comes. The experience of Christians is that they are happiest when most obedient to the demands of the Lord.

"I am a Christian because I expect to obtain through my faith and practice a joyous immortality. If any character is worth preserving it must certainly be that type which the profession of Christianity develops. The Sermon on the Mount is not only a standard for those living at this time, but it is inconceivable that the moral culture it teaches should ever be outgrown. Likewise, if there is, as Christians believe, a life beyond this life which is higher and better, it must be, if it is better at all, a perfection and continuation along the lines the Christian seeks to develop.

"Men may mock at the idea of any existence beyond this life, but the human heart will ever long for the land where there is no weeping. Countless souls as they have launched out into the cold waves of the river that men have named death, have called back as the waters were closing over them that it was not death, but transition."

Moved to Kansas City.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Borchers and family left Friday morning for Kansas City, Kan., to make their home. All the family were happily anticipating their new home excepting Teddy. He feels that he is going to miss his Maryville friends, and we are quite sure all Maryville will miss Teddy. He says if he gets homesick he is coming back on a visit. Teddy carried sunshine and merriment wherever he went. Trouble never troubled him, and we hope he will find as many new friends in the Sunflower state as he left in Maryville. It is a hopeless old crouch that could resist that smile of his.

Miss Lula McKnight Improving.

George McKnight returned this morning from Rochester, Minn., and brings the good news that his sister, Lula, was able to leave the Mayo hospital yesterday and is improving steadily. She will remain in Rochester a week or ten days to be under the care of the specialists. George had been in Rochester since the first of last week and he says that during this time her improvement has been steady and everything is favorable for a complete recovery.—Burlington Junction Post.

IS A BIG STORE.

The Graham-Latimer Company Had Stock Ready for Opening Friday—Showing Was a Surprise.

The Graham-Latimer company, successors to the D. E. Hotchkiss Variety store, opened its handsome store Friday morning at 9 o'clock and made its bow to the people of Maryville.

It is a high class variety store, and carries every line of goods that are of every-day use, especially in ready-to-wear things, kitchen ware, china and glassware. The showing was a big surprise to everybody who called, and the stock of goods on display is excellent.

This company has a chain of thirty-two stores, only three of them in Missouri. "And now that we have invaded your state we expect to take possession just as fast as we can," Mr. McCartney said this morning. "All other stores of the company are in Iowa, but we now have all the really desirable towns we can get at present. We never go into a town unless it is a good business point and we can also get a good location. The two must go together with us. Our two other stores in Missouri are in Chillicothe and Kirksville. They are fine places and we believe Maryville will be a good point. Our headquarters are at Ottumwa. We started this chain of stores ten years ago and have made a good success of it. We carry goods we can stand by and of course the trade stands by us."

Mr. D. E. Hotchkiss, the manager, and also a partner, was there to greet the people this morning and make them feel at home in this handsome new business place.

Miss Beatrix Winn of the Normal faculty went to her home in St. Joseph Thursday evening for the Easter vacation.

Patient at Hospital.

Mrs. Edward Egley went to St. Francis hospital Wednesday to undergo a surgical operation.

Brotherhood Meeting.

NOTE MAY MEAN EXECUTION STAY

Warns Against Evidence of Witnesses Against Gunmen.

FOUND IN CORRESPONDENCE

Declared to Have Been Written by a Former Assistant to District Attorney Whitman and It Is Submitted to Governor Glynn.

Albany, N. Y., April 10.—Eleven words written on a slip of white paper, which was found in a bundle of old correspondence by L. B. M. Brown of New York, may prove the means of obtaining a stay of execution for the four gunmen convicted of the murder of Herman Rosenthal.

According to Mr. Brown, the note, which contains a warning against giving credence to statements of Morris Luban and Max Margolis, who were witnesses against the gunmen, was written by a former assistant to District Attorney Whitman. It was intended, Brown said, for the guidance of former Governor William Sulzer, in whose behalf it was reported at the time, the communication was written. Luban would appear as a witness at the former governor's impeachment trial. The note bears no date, nor signature. Brown said it was written early last fall. This is what the note says:

"Be very careful as to anything given by Luban or Margolis."

Upon discovering the note Brown took it to Governor Glynn and begged that it be given consideration. The governor called in his legal advisers, John G. Saxe and James L. Delehanty, an assistant of District Attorney Whitman, and the latter agreed in behalf of the district attorney to waive legal formalities and go before a supreme court justice and permit Mr. Brown to tell his story under oath if he desired to make an effort to obtain a respite or a new trial for the condemned men.

Mr. Brown said he would take this legal step today. Mr. Delehanty agreed to assume charge of the proceedings for the district attorney's office.

The governor declined to express any opinion on the merits of the new angle of the case.

Says Shipping Trust Pollutes News.

Washington, April 10.—Representative Barnhart (Dem., Ind.), author of the newspaper publicity section of the postoffice law, told Postmaster Burleson that he believed certain newspapers were violating its provisions by not marking as advertising certain matter attacking the repeal of the Panama tolls exemption, which, Mr. Barnhart alleges, he has reason to believe is being furnished by a shipping trust. Mr. Burleson told Mr. Barnhart he was ready to receive any evidence of violation of the law.

BRITON MADE TO CARRY MESSAGE

British Agent at Torreon Forced to Bear Terms to Federals.

FIRE UPON DURING THE TRIP

Villa Compeles Acting Vice Consul Cunard-Cummins to Go, Declare Newspaper Correspondents Reaching El Paso—Tell of Rebel Reverse.

El Paso, Tex., April 10.—Two newspaper correspondents arrived here from Torreon, bringing reports of oppressive treatment inflicted by General Villa on H. S. Cunard-Cummins, acting British vice consul at Torreon, of the defeat of the rebel column sent against San Pedro, and that the federal general, Velasco, had succeeded in joining General Hidalgo at Saltillo, where they have a joint command of 12,000 or 13,000 men. Hidalgo, they said, was trying to reach Torreon with reinforcements when Velasco evacuated the city.

The brigade sent against San Pedro returned, staggering back with its wounded. The federal rapid firers, sweeping the level plain, worked havoc among the rebels.

The correspondent said that while the sending of news from the front was not entirely prohibited, it was censored so severely as to be all but worthless. General Villa, they said, compelled Mr. Cunard-Cummins to run the risk of carrying a demand for the surrender of Torreon to General Velasco, the trip being made under protest, and during which Mr. Cunard-Cummins was fired upon by the rebels.

George C. Carothers, special agent of the state department at the battle, in the report of the incident that he has made to Washington, however, does not indicate that Mr. Cunard-Cummins was coerced into becoming General Villa's messenger, but states that he did so with some reluctance after first refusing.

Rumor That Tampico Has Fallen.

Vera Cruz, April 10.—The American consulate has received word from the consular agent at Tuxpan that grave rumors are current there that Tampico has fallen. Late reports say the federal gunboats are successfully defending the town, but are doing much damage by bad marksmanship.

IRRIGATION CONFERENCE

Government Would Make Investments in Water Projects Safe.

Denver, April 10.—United action by state and federal governments in financing irrigation projects in the west was advocated by A. A. Jones, first assistant secretary of the interior, in opening the irrigation conference called by Secretary Franklin K. Lane.

"If possible we should make investments in irrigation projects safe," declared Mr. Jones. "We should lighten the financial burden upon the settlers, who ultimately pay the cost; we should provide them with cheap money; but you can't raise cheap money without good security."

The assistant secretary then suggested combined action by states and by the federal government, particularly in financing large irrigation enterprises, which ordinarily have difficulty in enlisting individual capital.

TANK CAR FILLED WITH BOOZE

Was Billed Into Prohibition State as an Empty.

St. Louis, April 10.—An oil tank car in the yards of the St. Louis, Iron Mountain and Southern railroad here was found to be loaded with whisky, wine and beer. Internal revenue officers ordered the car held for investigation.

The car was billed to Oklahoma City and it is believed the liquor was smuggled into it in an effort to ship liquor into the prohibition state.

The liquors were in unaddressed packages, but each bore markings which are believed to indicate certain consignees. The car, filled with oil, had been sent to St. Louis from Oklahoma and then billed for transit to Oklahoma as an empty.

Saints Choose Missionaries.

These young men were called to the office of seventy, the missionary body of the church: David J. Williams and William E. Shakespear.

Cow Sets New Record.

Petersboro, N. H., April 10.—By producing 1,059.59 pounds of butterfat in a year, a new world's record has been established by a Guernsey cow at the Cassatt farm at Berwyn, Pa., according to an announcement by William D. Caldwell, secretary of the Guernsey Cattle association. The former record was held by a Holstein cow owned by P. F. Field of Brockton, Mass., which produced 1,058 pounds of butterfat in a year.

Sun and Wind Bring Out Ugly Spots—How to Remove Easily.

Here's a chance, Miss Freckle-face, to try a remedy for freckles with the guarantee of a reliable dealer that it will not cost you a penny unless it removes the freckles; while if it does give you a clear complexion the expense is trifling.

Simply get an ounce of othine—double strength—from any druggist and a few applications should show you how easy it is to rid yourself of the homely freckles and get a beautiful complexion. Rarely is more than one ounce needed for the worst case.

Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength othine as this is the prescription sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles.

Peace and Plenty

POVERTY destroys a man's courage and weakens his natural inclination to look you in the eyes and tell the truth. MONEY is the counter in this game of life.

And while we do not love money for its own sake, we realize that it is only money that can ward off want, woe, wretchedness—perhaps starvation—when earning power is gone. And earning power, for all of us, will surely go sometime—this we all know. MONEY stands between you and the fear of want.

VOLUME 4.

MARYVILLE, MISSOURI, FRIDAY, APRIL 10, 1914.

NO. 267.

IS A SACRED WEEK

HOLY WEEK HELD SACRED BY ALL CHRISTIANS.

A SYNOPSIS OF EVENTS

Beginning With Palm Sunday a Brief Outline of the Happenings of That Week of Centuries Ago.

Holy Week began with Palm Sunday, commemorating the triumphal entry of Jesus into Jerusalem, when His disciples, the country people, followed Him, carpeting His way with palm branches and their own sacrificial robes, cast before His feet in the enthusiasm of religious hopes and Messianic affection. That scene, enacted in the land of the rising sun 2,000 years ago, is engraven on the faithful hearts of millions of Christ's followers today. This is the week in which the men and women of Christendom will walk with Christ, the Savior, to Jerusalem, be with Him in dark Gethsemane, see Him betrayed by Judas, be present at the session of the Sanhedrin, pity Pilate and follow the world's redeemer to Calvary. There the Christian world of the nineteenth century will see the cross, emblematic of all the progress which has attended the development of the ages.

The entrance of Jesus into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday is followed by the cleansing of the temple on Monday, when he utters the memorable words, with a meaning for all time. "Make not my father's house a house of merchandise." Tuesday commemorates His great controversy with the Herodians, Pharisees and Sadducees who sought not only to refute but to entangle Him; that they might have grounds whereby to accuse Him and bring Him to His death.

Wednesday commemorates His prophecy, on the Mount of Olives, of the destruction of Jerusalem, and the bargain Judas made with the high priests and elders to betray Jesus into their hands for thirty pieces of silver, the day closing with His evening visit to the home of Mary and Martha at Bethany, where the alabaster box of precious ointment was broken, whose fragrance has gone round the world, where love uttered itself in a language which only love can interpret, bringing from the Master's lips those comforting words: "She hath done what she could."

Thursday is the occasion of the meeting in the upper chamber, the eating of the Passover, the Last Supper, the feast of love, the memorable washing of the feet, followed by those wonderful discourses in the heart of John's Gospel which have comforted countless sorrowing hearts for nearly two thousand years.

Friday is the day of the great tragedy, the day of days in the Christian history of the world, for on that day the cruel nails were driven into sacrificial flesh—who does not know the story of these hours.

Saturday, full of exultation for the Pharisees, full of desolation for disciples scattered as sheep without a shepherd, was a day on which all the material world seemed to have been made dark. On the first day following that dark and desecrated Jewish Sabbath very early in the morning, while it was yet dark, two lone women went toward the tomb to anoint the body with spices, wondering as they went who should roll away for them the stone from the door. But, behold, it was rolled away already! An angel sat upon it, saying, "He is not here. He is risen."

This is a brief synopsis of the events that were crowded into that memorable week 2,000 years ago, a week which all Christians hold sacred.

GAVE HIS SERMON

LOUISVILLE PAPER PUBLISHED ONE BY REV. J. D. RANDOLPH.

ASSISTS IN A REVIVAL

At Louisville, Ky., Methodist Temple For Past Ten Days—Forty Conversions the First Week.

Rev. J. D. Randolph of the Buchanan Street Methodist church, who has been in Louisville, Ky., the past ten days assisting Dr. U. G. Foote in a special meeting at the Methodist temple, will arrive in Maryville in time to take charge of the Sunday services at his church here.

From the Louisville Courier-Journal of last Monday, we see that there were forty conversions the first week of the meetings, which were commenced a week ago last Sunday. Afternoon meetings are also held.

The Courier-Journal gave account of Rev. Randolph's sermon of last Sunday night on the subject, "Why I Am a Christian," which is given below:

His text for Sunday night's sermon was I. Peter, 3:15: "Be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you."

He said in part:

"The subject has been stated in a most personal and intimate form. It is natural that one should shrink from intimate disclosures. There are moods of the soul too sacred to be exposed to the gaze of the curious. In preaching on this theme I must bare my heart to you. When I attempt to give the reasons why I am a Christian a plummet line must be sent down into the farthest depth of my being. The attempt is made in the hope that it may persuade others to become what I am, a follower of the Lord Jesus Christ.

"One of the chief reasons why I am a Christian is the contribution of Christianity to the advancement of the world. It is difficult for those living today to get anything like an adequate conception of the degradation and cruelty of the world at the time Christ was born. It is a sickening task to uncover the moral degeneracy of the heathen world. Two-thirds of the population of the Roman empire were slaves. The others, while free, were mostly property of any kind and hard pressed to obtain sufficient food and clothing. A small minority of the citizens of the empire owned all the land and slaves. The physical and moral degradation of the slaves was indescribable. For the slave there was no protection in law and little in the pity of his master.

"Less than 2,000 years have passed since Christ came into the world. Today, not even in the heart of an African jungle, can human flesh be legally bought and sold. This has come to pass as a result of the presence of Christianity in the world. I am a Christian therefore because I must either identify myself with the movement which has driven out oppression or else admit that I do not care enough about others to give my personal support to that which has been the greatest force for righteousness the world has ever known.

HAVE PRETTY HAIR

Thick, Soft, Fluffy, and No Dandruff—
Use Parisian Sage.

If your hair is losing its natural color, coming out and splitting, or lacks that enviable softness, gloss and beauty, do not despair—pretty hair is largely a matter of care. If it is too thin to make it grow. If it is harsh and brittle soften it up—lubricate it. If you have dandruff it is because the scalp is too dry and flakes off. Freshen up the scalp with Parisian Sage—all dandruff disappears, falling hair and itching head cease, your hair is doubly beautiful.

Parisian Sage, sold by T. J. Parle and at all drug counters, is just what you need—a large bottle costs but 50 cents. It surely makes the hair lustrous and seem twice as abundant. You cannot be disappointed in Parisian Sage.

Feeble Old People

Are Told How to Regain Strength and Vigor.

As one grows old the waste of the system becomes more rapid than repair, the organs act more slowly and less effectively than in youth, the circulation is poor, the blood thin and digestion weak.

Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic without oil is the ideal strengthener and body builder for old folks, for it contains the very elements needed to rebuild wasting tissues and replace weakness with strength. Vinol also fortifies the system against colds and thus prevents pneumonia.

Mrs. Mary Ivey of Columbus, Ga., says: "If people only knew the good Vinol does old people, I am sure you would be unable to supply the demand. I never took anything before that did me so much good as Vinol. It is the finest tonic and strength creator I ever used in my life."

If Vinol fails to build up the feeble, old people, and create strength we will return your money. Orear-Henry Drug Co., Maryville, Mo.—Advertisement.

Was a Great Success.

The evening social entertainment given in the First Baptist church parlors Thursday evening by the white division of the Amoma class to the blue division, in keeping with the agreement that the losing side should feast the winning side in the membership contest that closed Sunday, was one of the most enjoyable affairs that has been given at this church for some time. Some two hundred and fifty were present, and the excellent two-course supper served was indeed a credit to the white division, captained by Mrs. May Denny. The blues had Miss Ina Campbell for their captain. The program committee composed of J. A. Middleton, Frank Reynolds, B. W. Lemon, Charles Andrews, Miss Frances Miller and Mrs. A. J. Luppold had done their part perfectly and there was music, charades and contests all through the evening.

An All-Day Meeting.

The C. W. B. M. and Young Ladies' Mission Circle of the First Christian church held their Easter devotional service Thursday from 10 to 12 in the forenoon and from 2:30 to 4:30 in the afternoon. A noon luncheon was partaken of and enjoyed by all. The morning service was presided over by Mrs. Robert Lyle, and some good talks were given by several of the members, also in the afternoon. These two societies have a place on the double honor roll in the state. At the close of the afternoon session, the Ladies' Aid society, including all divisions, met in the church and spent the afternoon in sewing for Dr. Drummond's children. At 4:30 the third ward division, as hostess, served the more than one hundred ladies present with refreshments. Altogether it was a delightful day. The society very much appreciated the beautiful bouquet of daffodils sent by Mrs. R. P. Hosmer, who could not be present.

YOUR CHILD'S SIGHT

Should be a most important consideration. Many children are handicapped in school or subjected to petty nervous or physical ills by the effects of imperfect vision.

An examination of the eyes of 100,000 school children in New York City showed that nearly 30 per cent needed glasses. In Boston it was more than 20 per cent, and most of them were down on the books as "stupid," "stubborn" or "unruly."

Wearing glasses in childhood often averts serious trouble later on. Have our optician examine your child's eyes. If glasses are not needed you may be sure we will tell you so frankly.

JIM ANDY FORD

It would be impossible for me to be a Christian did I not believe that God is the kind, loving father that Jesus taught Him to be and that Jesus Christ is His divine Son and that all men of every race and nation are brothers. There are a great many mysteries about Christian doctrine and many passages in the Bible are hard to understand, but the Fatherhood of God, the Sonship of Jesus and the brotherhood of man need not cause anyone to stumble. These great truths are written into the very nature of things. They are verifiable in experience and form the basis of the great body of Christian doctrine. Without faith in these things death would be a leap into fearful darkness and despair and life a meaningless mass of contradictions and the universe an expression of blind force which knows neither pity nor remorse.

"Another reason why I am a Christian is that I have found in it a power which encourages and sustains me in the struggle of life. Christianity sets forth the philosophy of hope. It holds out a promise of happy endings. It touches the dark clouds of sorrow with silver and sends the searchlight of its truth into the valley of the shadow of death.

"Following the precepts set forth in the Christian faith has never brought sorrow and shame to the life of anyone. It is only when one violates the principles of Christian ethics that shame comes. The experience of Christians is that they are happiest when most obedient to the demands of the Lord.

"I am a Christian because I expect to obtain through my faith and practice a joyous immortality. If any character is worth preserving it must certainly be that type which the profession of Christianity develops. The Sermon on the Mount is not only a standard for those living at this time, but it is inconceivable that the moral culture it teaches should ever be outgrown. Likewise, if there is, as Christians believe, a life beyond this life which is higher and better, it must be, if it is better at all, a perfection and continuation along the lines the Christian seeks to develop.

"Men may mock at the idea of any existence beyond this life, but the human heart will ever long for the land where there is no weeping. Countless souls as they have launched out into the cold waves of the river that men have named death, have called back as the waters were closing over them that it was not death, but transition."

Moved to Kansas City.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Borchers and family left Friday morning for Kansas City, Kan., to make their home. All the family were happily anticipating their new home excepting Teddy. He feels that he is going to miss his Maryville friends, and we are quite sure all Maryville will miss Teddy. He says if he gets homesick he is coming back on a visit. Teddy carried sunshine and merriment wherever he went. Trouble never troubled him, and we hope he will find as many new friends in the Sunflower state as he left in Maryville. It is a hopeless old grouch that could resist that smile of his.

IS A BIG STORE.

The Graham-Latimer Company Had Stock Ready for Opening Friday—Showing Was a Surprise.

The Graham-Latimer company, successors to the D. E. Hotchkiss Variety store, opened its handsome store Friday morning at 9 o'clock and made its bow to the people of Maryville.

It is a high class variety store, and carries every line of goods that are of every-day use, especially in ready-to-wear things, kitchen ware, china and glassware. The showing was a big surprise to everybody who called, and the stock of goods on display is excellent.

This company has a chain of thirty-two stores, only three of them in Missouri. "And now that we have invaded your state we expect to take possession just as fast as we can," Mr. McCartney said this morning. "All other stores of the company are in Iowa, but we now have all the really desirable towns we can get at present. We never go into a town unless it is a good business point and we can also get a good location. The two must go together with us. Our two other stores in Missouri are in Chillicothe and Kirksville. They are fine places and we believe Maryville will be a good point. Our headquarters are at Ottumwa. We started this chain of stores ten years ago and have made a good success of it. We carry goods we can stand by and of course the trade stands by us."

Mr. D. E. Hotchkiss, the manager, and also a partner, was there to greet the people this morning and make them feel at home in this handsome new business place.

Miss Beatrix Winn of the Normal faculty went to her home in St. Joseph Thursday evening for the Easter vacation.

Mrs. Edward Egley went to St. Francis hospital Wednesday to undergo a surgical operation.

Brotherhood Meeting.

NOTE MAY MEAN EXECUTION STAY

Warns Against Evidence of Witnesses Against Gunmen.

FOUND IN CORRESPONDENCE

Declared to Have Been Written by a Former Assistant to District Attorney Whitman and It Is Submitted to Governor Glynn.

Albany, N. Y., April 10.—Eleven words written on a slip of white paper, which was found in a bundle of old correspondence by L. B. M. Brown of New York, may prove the means of obtaining a stay of execution for the four gunmen convicted of the murder of Herman Rosenthal.

According to Mr. Brown, the note, which contains a warning against giving credence to statements of Morris Luban and Max Margolis, who were witnesses against the gunmen, was written by a former assistant to District Attorney Whitman. It was intended, Brown said, for the guidance of former Governor William Sulzer, in whose behalf, it was reported at the time, the communication was written. Luban would appear as a witness at the former governor's impeachment trial. The note bears no date, nor signature. Brown said it was written early last fall. This is what the note says:

"Be very careful as to anything given by Luban or Margolis."

Upon discovering the note Brown took it to Governor Glynn and begged that it be given consideration. The governor called in his legal advisers, John G. Saxe and James L. Delehanty, an assistant of District Attorney Whitman, and the latter agreed in behalf of the district attorney to waive legal formalities and go before a supreme court justice and permit Mr. Brown to tell his story under oath if he desired to make an effort to obtain a respite or a new trial for the condemned men.

Mr. Brown said he would take this legal step today. Mr. Delehanty agreed to assume charge of the proceedings for the district attorney's office.

The governor declined to express any opinion on the merits of the new angle of the case.

Says Shipping Trust Pollutes News.

Washington, April 10.—Representative Barnhart (Dem., Ind.), author of the newspaper publicity section of the postoffice law, told Postmaster Burleson that he believed certain newspapers were violating its provisions by not marking as advertising certain matter attacking the repeal of the Panama tolls exemption, which, Mr. Barnhart alleges, has reason to believe is being furnished by a shipping trust. Mr. Burleson told Mr. Barnhart he was ready to receive any evidence of violation of the law.

BRITON MADE TO CARRY MESSAGE

British Agent at Torreon Forced to Bear Terms to Federals.

FIRED UPON DURING THE TRIP

Villa Compeles Acting Vice Consul Cunard-Cummins to Go, Declare Newspaper Correspondents Reaching El Paso—Tell of Rebel Reverse.

El Paso, Tex., April 10.—Two newspaper correspondents arrived here from Torreon, bringing reports of oppressive treatment inflicted by General Villa on H. S. Cunard-Cummins, acting British vice consul at Torreon, of the defeat of the rebel column sent against San Pedro, and that the federal general, Velasco, had succeeded in joining General Hidalgo at Saltillo, where they have a joint command of 12,000 or 13,000 men. Hidalgo, they said, was trying to reach Torreon with reinforcements when Velasco evacuated the city.

The brigade sent against San Pedro returned, staggering back with its wounded. The federal rapid fliers, sweeping the level plain, worked havoc among the rebels.

The correspondent said that while the sending of news from the front was not entirely prohibited, it was censored so severely as to be all but worthless. General Villa, they said, compelled Mr. Cunard-Cummins to run the risk of carrying a demand for the surrender of Torreon to General Velasco, the trip being made under protest, and during which Mr. Cunard-Cummins was fired upon by the rebels. George C. Carothers, special agent of the state department at the battle, in the report of the incident that he has made to Washington, however, does not indicate that Mr. Cunard-Cummins was coerced into becoming General Villa's messenger, but states that he did so with some reluctance after first refusing.

Rumor That Tampico Has Fallen.

Vera Cruz, April 10.—The American consulate has received word from the consular agent at Tuxpan that grave rumors are current there that Tampico has fallen. Late reports say the federal gunboats are successfully defending the town, but are doing much damage by bad marksmanship.

IRRIGATION CONFERENCE

Government Would Make Investments in Water Projects Safe.

Denver, April 10.—United action by state and federal governments in financing irrigation projects in the west was advocated by A. A. Jones, first assistant secretary of the interior, in opening the irrigation conference called by Secretary Franklin K. Lane.

"If possible we should make investments in irrigation projects safe," declared Mr. Jones. "We should lighten the financial burden upon the settlers, who ultimately pay the cost; we should provide them with cheap money; but you can't raise cheap money without good security."

The assistant secretary then suggested combined action by states and by the federal government, particularly in financing large irrigation enterprises, which ordinarily have difficulty in enlisting individual capital.

TANK CAR FILLED WITH BOOZE

Was Billed Into Prohibition State as an Empty.

St. Louis, April 10.—An oil tank car in the yards of the St. Louis, Iron Mountain and Southern railroad here was found to be loaded with whiskey, wine and beer. Internal revenue officers ordered the car held for investigation.

The car was billed to Oklahoma City and it is believed the liquor was smuggled into it in an effort to ship liquor into the prohibition state.

The liquors were in unaddressed packages, but each bore markings which are believed to indicate certain consignees. The car, filled with oil, had been sent to St. Louis from Oklahoma and then billed for transit to Oklahoma as an empty.

Saints Choose Missionaries.

Independence, Mo., April 10.—At the business meeting of the Latter Day Saints recommendations for the ordination of various men were endorsed. The following were chosen to be high priests: A. J. Corbett, G. W. Stewart, Ephraim Squires, A. Burgess and James P. Kier. These young men were called to the office of seventy, the missionary body of the church: David J. Williams and William E. Shakespear.

Cow Sets New Record.

Petersboro, N. H., April 10.—By producing 1,059.59 pounds of butterfat in a year, a new world's record has been established by a Guernsey cow at the Cassatt farm at Berwyn, Pa., according to an announcement by William D. Caldwell, secretary of the Guernsey Cattle association. The former record was held by a Holstein cow owned by P. F. Field of Brockton, Mass., which produced 1,058 pounds of butterfat in a year.

Sun and Wind Bring Out Ugly Spots—How to Remove Easily.

Here's a chance, Miss Freckle-face, to try a remedy for freckles with the guarantee of a reliable dealer that it will not cost you a penny unless it removes the freckles; while if it does give you a clear complexion the expense is trifling.

Simply get an ounce of othine—double strength—from any druggist and a few applications should show you how easy it is to rid yourself of the homely freckles and get a beautiful complexion. Rarely is more than one ounce needed for the worst case.

Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength othine as this is the prescription sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles.

Peace and Plenty

POVERTY destroys a man's courage and weakens his natural inclination to look you in the eyes and tell the truth. MONEY is the counter in this game of life.

And while we do not love money for its own sake, we realize that it is only money that can ward off want, woe, wretchedness—perhaps starvation—when earning power is gone. And earning power, for all of us, will surely go sometime—this we all know. MONEY stands between you and the fear of want.
